Population Highlights ◆ First Quarter 2010

The population of British Columbia increased by an estimated 0.4 percent during the first quarter of 2010, the highest growth rate among all provinces, resulting in an April 1st, 2010 total population of 4,510,858. This growth in population was due to gains from other parts of Canada and the world, as well as an excess of births over deaths.

On a year-over-year basis, B.C.'s population grew at a rate of slightly more than 1.6 percent between the first quarter of 2009 and 2010, just edging out Alberta (exactly 1.6% growth) and Saskatchewan (slightly under 1.6%), as the highest increase among the provinces. Only the territories of Nunavut (+2.9%) and Yukon (+2.0%) experienced higher population growth. The average growth across Canada was 1.2 percent.

The first quarter growth coincided with improved performances for several economic indicators, including exports (+6.6%, seasonally adjusted), housing starts (+28.9%, seasonally adjusted at annual rates), residential (+7.5%, seasonally adjusted) and non-residential (+4.3%, seasonally adjusted) construction investment and manufacturing shipments (+5.1%, seasonally adjusted), which may be a sign that the province's economy is starting to recover from the global economic slowdown.

During the first quarter of 2010, B.C. gained 13,946 and lost 12,304 inter-provincial migrants, resulting in the highest net inter-provincial migration gain (+1,642) among all the provinces and territories. This compares to a net loss of 16 migrants in the first quarter of 2009, when the economy was mired in a slump.

B.C. received migrants from all regions in Canada with the exception of Nunavut during the first quarter. The largest numbers of in-migrants to the province arrived from Alberta (6,565) and Ontario (3,878). Natural increase (the excess of births over deaths) added 2,661 persons to the population, up 6.7 percent from the first quarter of 2009.

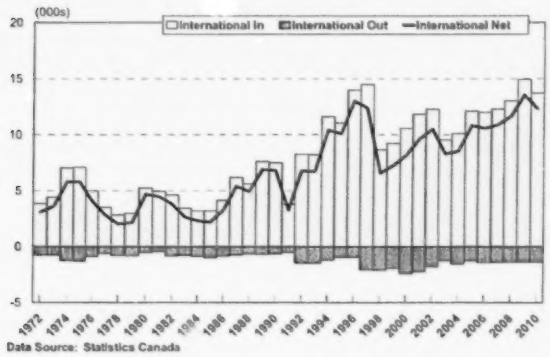
Net international migration continued to be the main contributor to population growth, adding 12,323 persons to B.C.'s population. This includes a gain of 4,102 non-permanent residents and 401 people who previously emigrated, but have returned to Canada. There were a total of 1,791 people who left B.C. for other countries.

Fig 2: International Migration 1st Quarter 2010



Statistics Canada recorded a total of 57,997 new landed immigrants in Canada during the first quarter of 2010, representing an increase of 14.2 percent compared to the first quarter of 2009. British Columbia continued to hold its position as one of the top three immigrant destinations in Canada.

In B.C., the number of arriving immigrants in the first quarter increased 3.5 percent compared with the same period last year. On the other hand, B.C.'s share of total immigrant landings to Canada declined. At 16.5 percent, B.C.'s share was 1.7 percentage points lower than in the same period in 2009.

The top three source countries for immigrants to B.C. are all in Asia. For four consecutive quarters, China was the top source country of immigrants to B.C., representing 24.0 percent of the B.C. total. Immigrants from the Philippines accounted for 13.5 percent, while immigrants from India made up 10.1 percent. Other countries such as England (6.3%), South Korea (4.8%), and U.S.A (4.7%), each contributed a significant number of immigrants to B.C.

Data from Citizenship and Immigration Canada showed that immigrants categorized in the Skilled Worker class accounted for the largest share of landings in B.C. during the first quarter of 2010, closely followed by the Family class. During the first quarter, 3,317 immigrants landed in the province as Skilled Work class immigrants. Compared with landings in the first quarter of 2009, the number of immigrants in the Skilled Worker class was 39.7 percent higher. In contrast, B.C. received fewer Family class immigrants (-15.3%) compared to last year.

In the first quarter, 81 percent of immigrants admitted to B.C. as Live-in Caregivers originated in the Philippines. China contributed the greatest share of Investor (76%) and Canadian Experience immigrants (33%). Many immigrants in the Provincial and Territorial Nominee class originated from England (16%). For non-economic classes, 21 percent of Family class immigrants originated from India in the first quarter of 2010.
